

USED TO FUNCTIONS LIKE A MAIN VERB ESPECIALLY WHEN IT COMES TO FORMING QUESTIONS AND NEGATIVES!

Stephen used to drink Coca Cola.

Stephen did not use to drink Coca Cola.

Did Stephen use to drink Coca Cola?

Stephen is used to the cold weather.

Stephen is not used to the cold weather.

Is Stephen used to the cold weather?

MEANING

Subject

Finite

Complement

FORM

Proper Noun

Verb

Adjective

Preposition

Noun Phrase

PRESENT

Stephen is used to the cold weather.

PAST

Stephen was used to the cold weather.

FUTURE

Stephen will be used to the cold weather.

MEANING

Subject

Finite

Complement

FORM

Proper Noun

Verb

Adjective

Preposition

Noun Phrase

PRESENT

Stephen gets used to the cold weather.

PAST

Stephen got used to the cold weather.

FUTURE

Stephen will get used to the cold weather.

PERFECT

Stephen has got used to the cold weather.

MODALS

Stephen can't get used to the cold weather.

MEANING →

Subject

Finite

Complement

FORM →

Proper Noun

Verb

Adjective

Preposition

Noun Phrase

+	Stephen	gets	used	to	the cold weather.
-	Stephen	does not get	used	to	the cold weather.
?	Does Stephen	get	used	to	the cold weather?
	Proper Noun	Verb	Adjective	Preposition	Noun Phrase

+	Stephen	is	used	to	the cold weather.
-	Stephen	is not	used	to	the cold weather.
?	Is Stephen		used	to	the cold weather?
	Proper Noun	Verb	Adjective	Preposition	Noun Phrase

+	Stephen	used	to	drink	Coca Cola.
-	Stephen	used	to	drink	Coca Cola.
?	Did Stephen	use	to	drink	Coca Cola.
	Proper Noun	Modal		Main Verb	Noun Phrase